

THE PEOPLE OF THE WEST

West Auckland
Heritage Conference

8 October

The Great Air Sea Rescue: Karekare beach 1935

by Sir Bob Harvey

KARE-KARE-L-S-C

Save Your Benzine.
COME TO PIHA.

PIHA

BRING THE FAMILY TO PIHA.

KAREKARE

AN UNSPOILED SCENIC GEM ONLY
TWENTY-FIVE MILES FROM C.P.O.

Leave Your Car at Home • Forget Petrol Restrictions • Relax • Recuperate

Enjoy your Vacation at—

FARLEY'S WINCHELSEA HOUSE

Where guests mingle in perfect harmony

The Premiere Accommodation House for a Good Holiday!

DAILY MOTOR SERVICE

N.Z.R. ROAD SERVICES, TRANSPORT TERMINAL

Phone 44-960 for Timetable and Bookings, or Ring or Write FARLEY'S. Phone No. 1, Karekare Bureau.

Tariff £4/4/-
Daily 13/6.

RESCUE FROM AIR

SEAPLANE IN SURF

ORDEAL OF WOMAN

FOUR HOURS IN WATER

LIFE-SAVERS POWERLESS

KAREKARE BEACH DRAMA

The aid of a Fairey IIIF seaplane from the Hobsonville Air Base was sent the rescue of a woman nearly four

DROWNING GIRL.

RESCUE BY 'PLANE.

AFTER THREE HOURS.

SURF MEN'S PLUCKY EFFORTS

HELP FROM HOBSONVILLE

After drifting backwards and forwards at the will of every current, some 400 yards off the beach in a heavy swell, beyond every effort of surf club members, a young woman, who had been swept from Karekare Beach in the surf yesterday, was rescued, after three hours, by a seaplane summoned from Hobsonville. The woman was Miss Hazel

KARE-KARE-L-S-C

THE PEOPLE OF THE WEST

West Auckland
Heritage Conference

8 October

